Meeting Groundrules

Participants will observe the following meeting groundrules to guide their behavior and comment process. Participants will:

1. Observe Brown Act requirements.
2. Seek to understand and respect opposing views.
3. Keep comments and discussion succinct and focused on meeting objectives.
4. Observe the following public comment groundrules:
 - a. The public will have an opportunity to comment on items that are not on the agenda.
 - b. Each public comment will be limited to three minutes.
 - c. CSAB members are not required to respond to any issues raised during the public comment period and may not take any action on such issues other than to refer the item or schedule the issue(s) for a future agenda.
 - d. Comments will be taken in the order that they are received.
5. Public comment during virtual meetings
 - a. Public comments will be taken verbally in the meeting and will be included in the public comment record in the meeting summaries.
 - b. The Chatbox is reserved for informal communication and technical assistance. The ‘chats’ will not be included in the public comment record in the Meeting Summaries.
 - c. In order to indicate that you want to make a public comment or question, a member of the public may introduce themselves by their name and affiliation verbally or via the chatbox. Do not write your public comment in the chatbox; it will not be recorded as a public comment.
